Dear Parents/Carers

World Book Day – Thursday 1st March 2018

World Book Day is fast approaching and we are writing to let you know about some of the exciting events that we have planned to help celebrate World Book Day next week.

Dress up as your favourite book character

In usual World Book Day tradition, the children are invited to come to school dressed as their favourite book character.

During the week, there will be a variety of competitions which the children can enter to win prizes, including 'Match the Selfie to the Shelfie' where children will have to match the member of staff to their book shelf.

Extreme reading competition

In addition to this, we would like to encourage children to continue celebrating World Book Day at home so we are launching our #extremereading challenge. The idea is that parents and carers take a photo of their child reading in the most creative and amazing place they can find and then tweet the picture to @TheKFSchool along with the hashtag #extremereading. There will be a prize for the most creative place found. Keep an eye on twitter for pictures of staff members completing the extreme reading challenge too!

Bedtime Stories:

On the evening of Thursday 1st March we will be holding a bedtime stories event, where children can return to school in their pyjamas for a bedtime story read by members of The Kingfisher staff. There will be two separate sessions available:

EYFS and Key Stage 1: 4:45 – 5:30

Key Stage 2: 5:45 – 6:30

In order that we can provide enough hot chocolate and marshmallows for the children at this event, please collect a free ticket from the school office. Parents and carers are of course very welcome to join us for this popular event.

World Book Day lunch

On Thursday 1st March the children will be able to enjoy a book themed lunch including enormous crocodile claws and snozcumber surprise.

Yours faithfully,

Claire Barker
